

Xinje Cloud 4.0 Quick Start

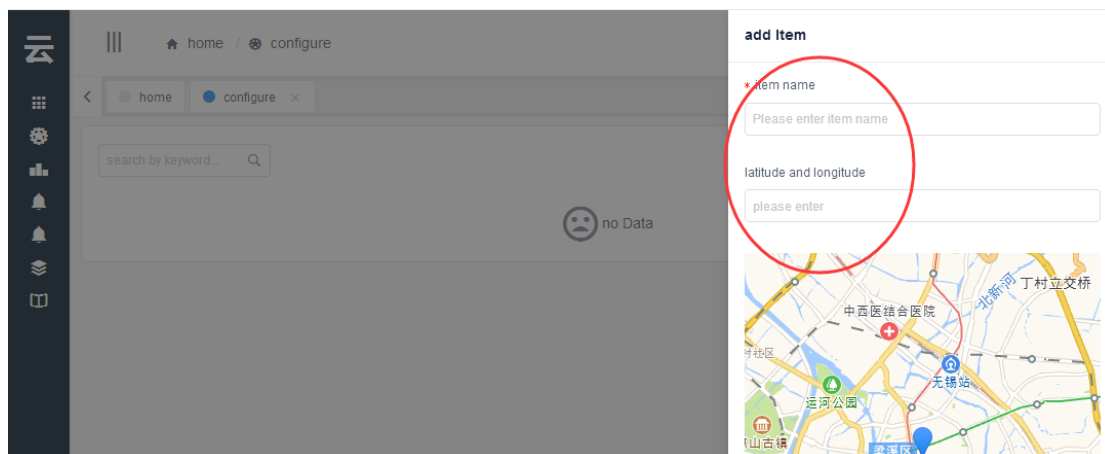

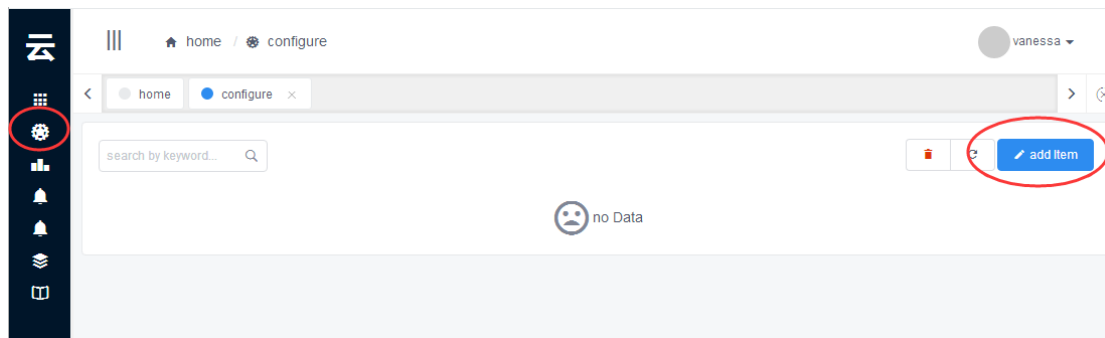

Step1 Log in

Open Xinje Cloud 4.0 website <http://cloud.xinje.net>, enter name and password to log in.

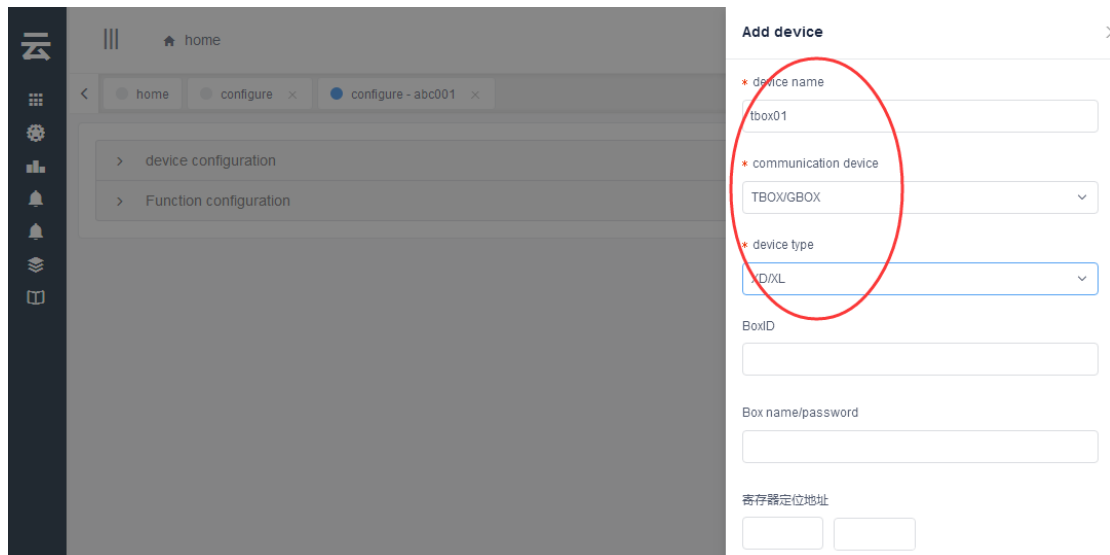

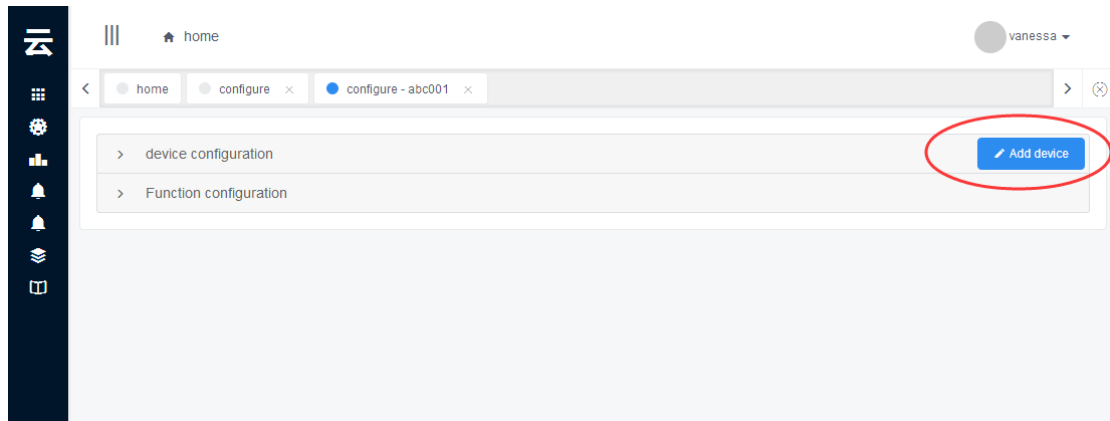

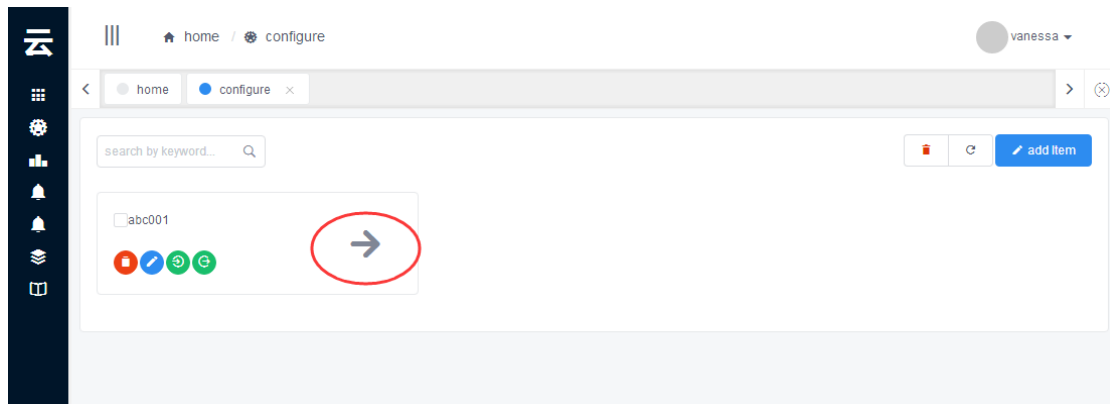

Step2 New project

Click the configure in the left side menu→add item→set project name and location information to finish the creation.

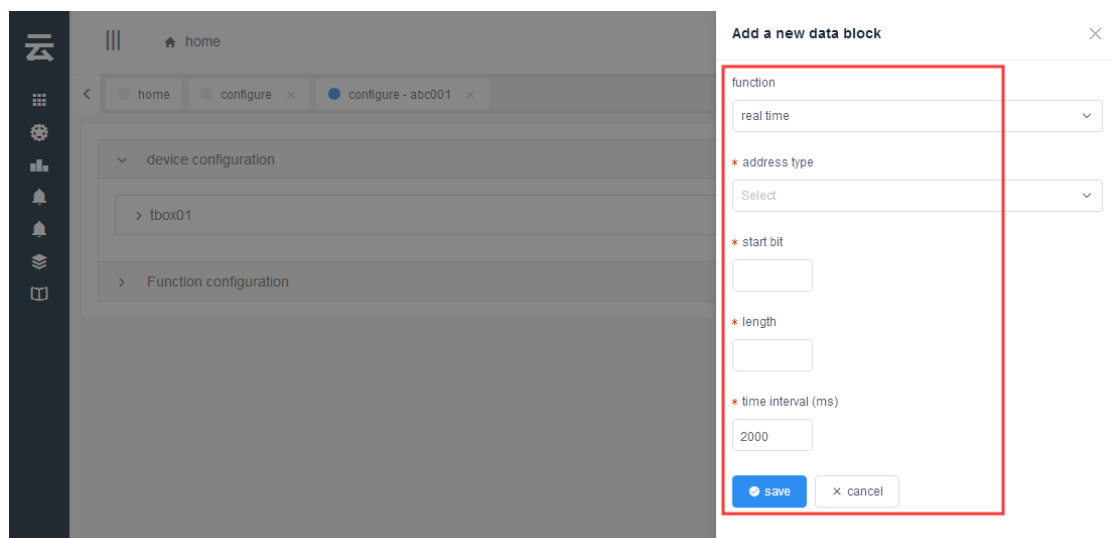

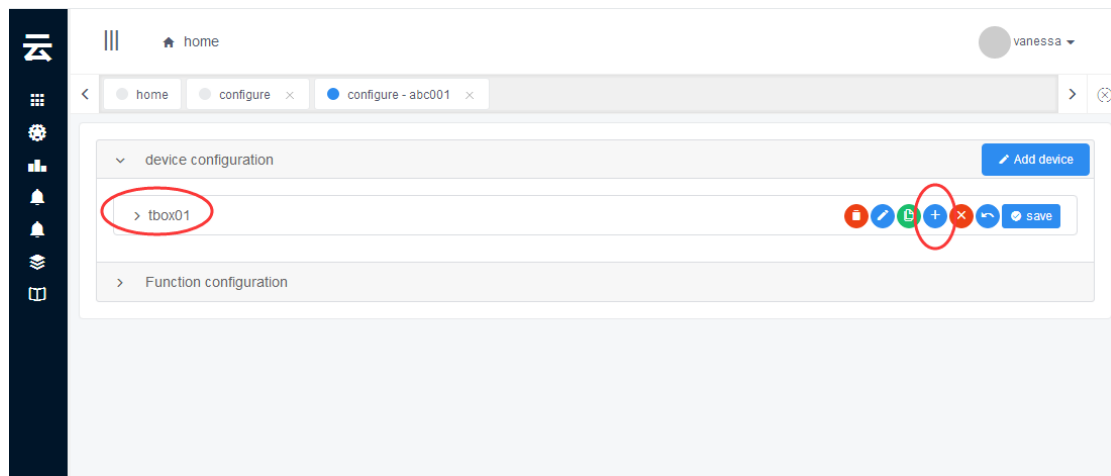

Step3 New device

Enter the project→add device→set the device name, communication device, device type, box id and password.

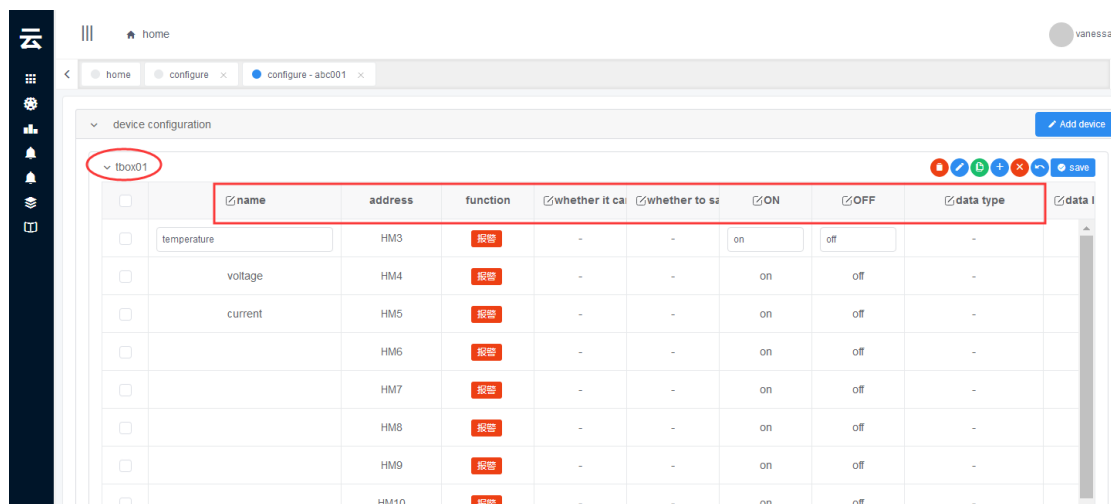

Step4 New data block

Click your device→click + →set the function, address type, start bit, length, time interval.

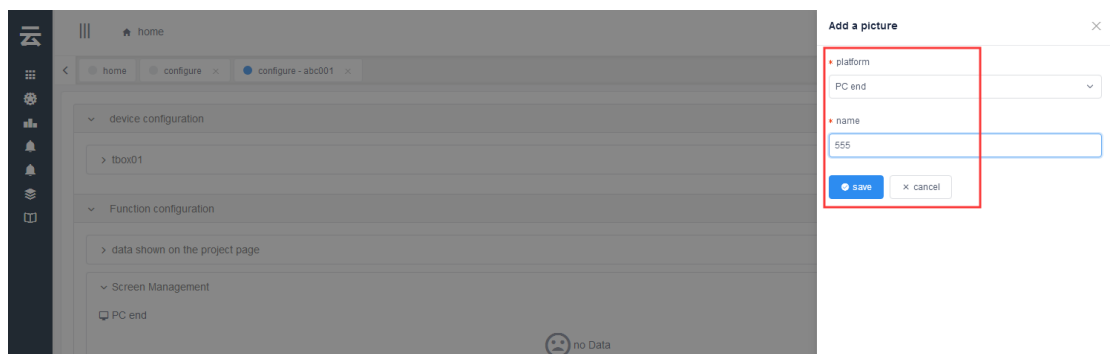

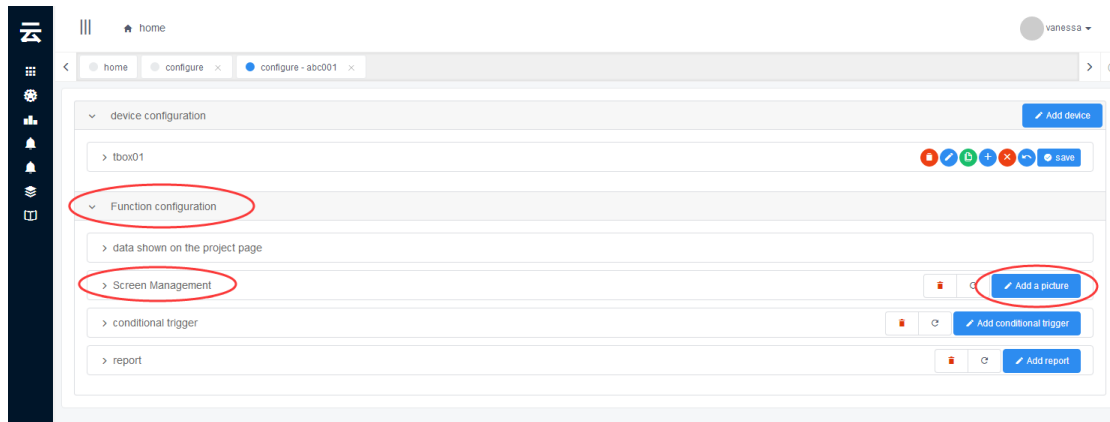

Step5 Edit the data in the data block

Click your device→edit data name, whether it can read write, whether to save, data type.

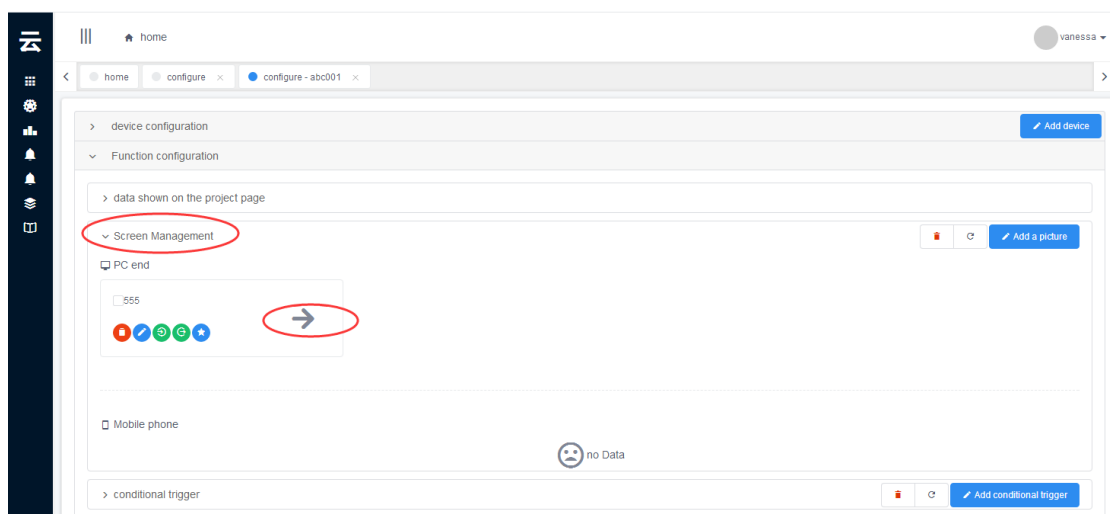

Step6 New SCADA screen

Click Function configuration → screen management → add a picture → choose platform and set the name.

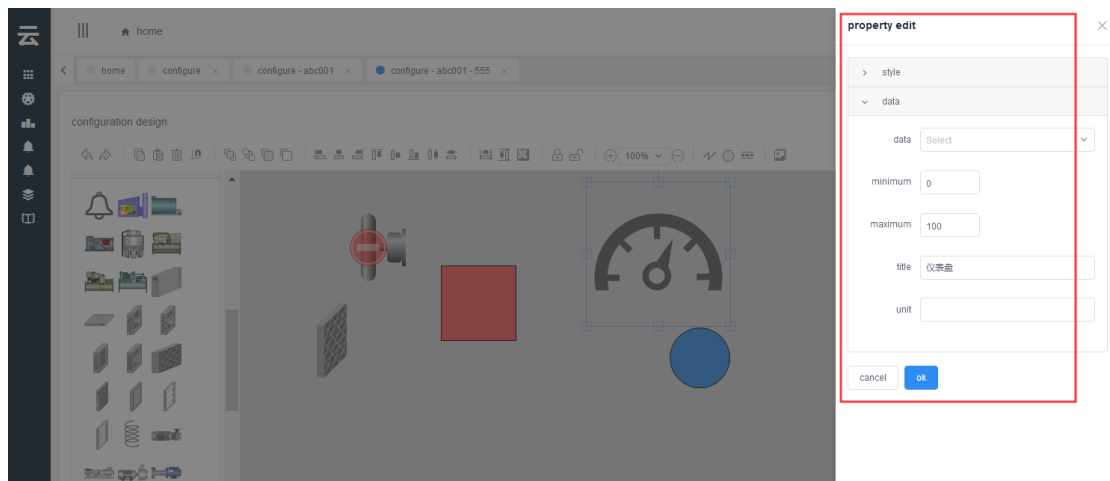

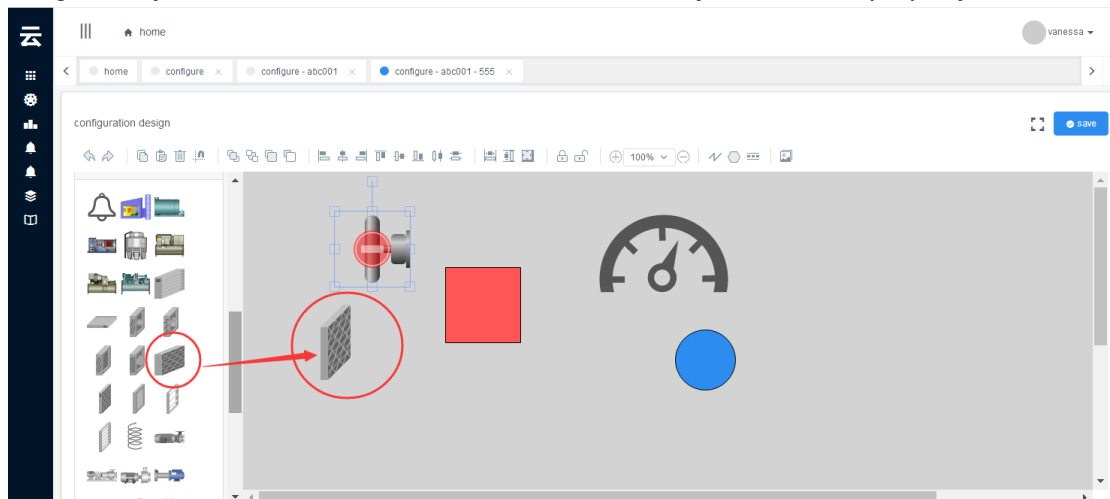

Step7 Edit the SCADA screen

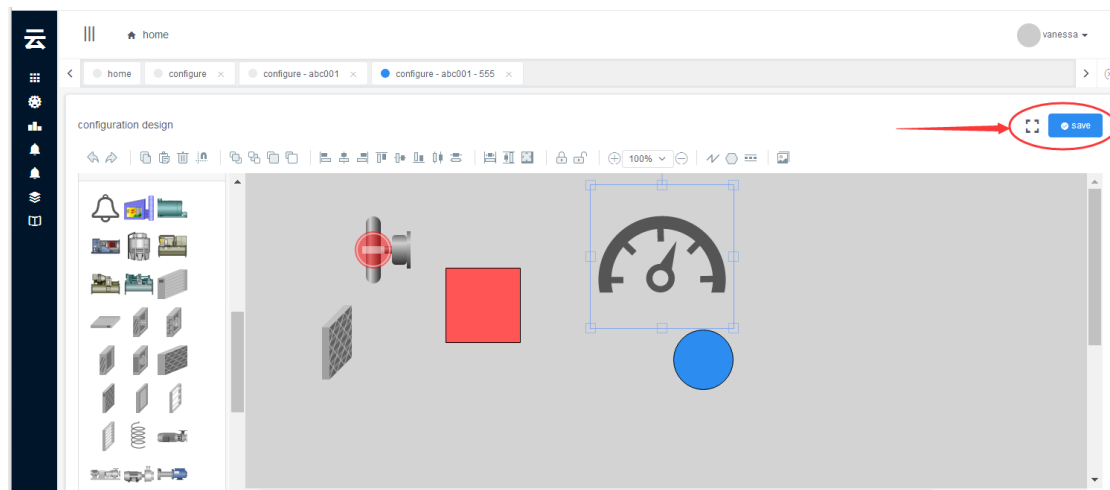

Click screen management → enter the new scada screen.

Drag the object to the scada screen, double click the object to edit its property.

After finishing the scada screen editing, please click save.

Step8 Check the item

Click item in the left side menu → enter your project to check the scada screen.

